Maximize the reach and use of your Wiley Open Access Account

Beginning 15 January 2019, authors from all Hungarian Electronic Information Service Programme (EISZ) institutions may publish primary research and review articles in any of Wiley's fully gold Open Access or Wiley's hybrid, OnlineOpen journals at no further charge* to the author.
To publish without having to pay additional Article Publication Charges (APCs), the article's corresponding author must be from an eligible institution and the article must have been accepted on or after 15 January 2019. (View Eligible EISZ Institutions).
